

HOSPITALITY AGREEMENT

..... (SURNAME, Name)
will be welcomed as a guest in the JRS Welcome network :

From to
(estimated dates of hospitality in the JRS Welcome program).

He/she will be accompanied by :

.....
(SURNAME, Name, phone number), known as the buddy.

This time of hospitality will respect JRS Welcome's Best Practices, and the guest and the buddy both certify having read and understanding them.

This hospitality is personal, free of any compensation and limited in time, and its beneficiary could not be considered as having a housing solution or benefitting from a service that would lessen the financial aid they are owed.

Throughout their stay in the JRS Welcome program, guests of all the JRS France local offices are covered by the organisation's civil liability insurance. This insurance coverage ends when the person leaves the program. The end date can be adjusted depending on the guest's situation, within the limit of 9 months maximum.

THE FOLLOWING ARE ESTABLISHED

The guest agrees to the living conditions, and the rules of cohabitation. He/she agrees to leave the place where he/she is welcomed at the agreed end date. He/she agrees to respecting the place where he/she is welcomed and to leave it as was found. He/she will also agree on the rules of daily life (hours, use of the common rooms) and cohabitation with the hosts. If he/she is late or is not sleeping there, he/she should let the hosts know.

The guest, the hosts and the buddy agree to respect each other's privacy. They all commit to showing discretion regarding what is shared when together, about their family life or personal history.

In case of incompatibility or lack of respect to the place and/or persons, the stay could be terminated in concertation with the buddy and by decision of the person in charge of the local network.

The guest and the buddy agree to respecting the terms of this agreement.

By signing this agreement, you give permission to JRS France to (indicate where you agree) :

☐ collect and conserve your data for purpose of transmitting information and ensuring the logistics of JRS Welcome through our planning software ¹.

☐ reproduce, use, adapt and/or modify your image through photographs taken during activities in your time at JRS France, for purpose of the organisation's communication and promotion.

This/these permission(s) is/are given without and end date. You can use your right to access, rectify or delete your data and/or permissions by contacting your local office's coordination team or writing to JRS France's office :
secretariat@jrsfrance.org

Signed in _____, on _____

Guest :

Buddy :

¹ Through its General Data Protection Framework, JRS France commits to respecting its confidentiality policy regarding the collection, conservation and use of the data and ensures your control over them. The data will never be shared externally to a third party: they are used for purpose of transmitting information and ensuring the logistics of the JRS Welcome program through our planning software (intranet). We need your agreement to host you in the JRS Welcome program.